PREFACE.

In presenting this International Stamp Directory to the Philatelic world, we would suggest that they praise what is good and pass over whatever may appear to them to mar its perfection, as it was not compiled for criticism but to bring within the reach of every reader, the names of parties to whom they may send their stamps without one thought of suspicion, and of those to whom the word honesty means keep what is not your own, and that which cannot be bought at any price—a name—is worthless.

Our advertisements stated that we would have the names of about 1000 collectors and 200 dealers, owing to unthought of and unlooked for circumstances, we have been unable to arrive at that number of collectors, although we are not far short of it, but we have given you the full number of dealers.

The arrangement will be found to be as perfect as possible. The countries running alphabetically followed by the names in like order.

We would commend our advertisers to the reader as honest, straightforward and trustworthy parties, able and willing at all times to supply, and assist you in the most minute particular.

We would warn you against the irresponsible dealers, and dealess in counterfeits, as swindlers of the worst type.

We take this opportunity of thanking the few who have assisted us with this work, and also our advertisers for their liberal patronage, which we hope will be returned them fourfold by the reader.

Triumph Stamp Company,
} One man is supposed to represent these three.

We would warn Dealers, Collectors and all friends of Philately against having anything whatsoever to do with any of the above, as they will either palm off upon you spurious imitations or swindle you in the most barefaced manner. They have not one spark of humanity in them, and appear to delight in robbing their unsuspecting and too trustful victims.

Casey's Stamp Journal,

FREE AND INDEPENDENT.

Third Year of Publication.

JOSEPH J. CASEY, - - Editor and Proprietor.

BOX 1698, NEW YORK, U. S. A.

THIS is the only paper in the United States not published by a stamp-dealer, and is the only paper recognized by the National Philatelical Society of New York. It contains accurate descriptions of all new issues, very copiously illustrated in the best style of the art. It contains impartial criticisms of all books or catalogues devoted to stamp-collecting. It has two pages of advertisements from the most reliable dealers and publishers in all parts of the world, offering to collectors the best means of knowing where to buy their stamps. It seeks to protect beginners from frauds, swindles, and dealers in counterfeit stamps, by reserving a portion of the paper every month to their exclusive benefit. This part is called "The Cemetery," in which all objectionable parties are cremated free of cost and their ashes marked by a lasting tombstone. To the amateur who counts his stamps by the thousands it is particularly valuable, as it chronicles all varieties of stamps, envelopes, or postal cards. Its revenue department is conducted by Mr. Walter Lee Brown ("Sax Doux"), the only authority in the United States in such matters, and is, without exception, the best published.

Among its contributors is John K. Tiffany, Esq. His name alone means success to any paper fortunate enough to receive it. No expense has been spared to make it the best and most reliable of its kind, in proof of which may be cited the fact that all foreign papers quote its articles.

Stamp-dealers cannot have a better medium for their advertisements, as the publisher has none of his own to detract from those of his customers.

Messrs. Richey, Bell & Co., are Sole Agents for the Dominion.

AGENTS WANTED in other parts of the world at 20 per cent Commission.

Subscriptions in the United States, Canada and Sandwich Islands 50 cents a year. In other countries 75 cents.

Advertisements 75 cents an inch. $.500 a column.

TERMS—Cash (for Current Stamps) in advance.
